About Us

Those who came to know about the young brilliant sage of Aruvippuram began to gather there for instructions, blessings or for mere darsan depending their attitude and aptitude. During Guru's early stay there, for instance, a boy of unusual faith and devotion to the Guru gave up his dear and near ones, desires and everything, and followed him implicitly ignoring all social censure and threats. This boy Kochappi Pillai in later life turned out to be a great Yogi, and became one of the chief disciples of Sree Gurudev. The celebrated hymn in Sanskrit, 'Guru Shatkam' is the composition of this revered Sivalingadasa Swamiji. The common folk of Aruvippuram as elsewhere in Kerala were denied the right to worship God in temples. This basic necessity of religious hearts was to be met by a bold and competent authority. And here was that destined moment. Sree Narayana Guru in his role as the universal teacher blessed and fulfilled that divine mission by installing the great Lord Siva on the bank of Neyyar. Thereupon he got his timeless message writ largely on the temple wall thus: Herein is the ideal place where one and all live in fraternity without caste distinctions and religious rivalry. Ah, when shall the human race realize its ultimate destiny and unity of the whole existence leaving aside all the divisionistic ideas! All these apparently diverse waves are belonging to the same ocean of Pure Consciousness. Bereft of this advaitic understanding every other...
