We are one of the leading traders and suppliers of Computer Networking & Hardware Products, Antivirus Softwares and Computer Accessories. These products are known for their long functional life, shock resistance and optimum performance.

About Us

Established in the year 2005, we, "Balaji Enterprises", are a reliable name in trading and supplying Computer Networking & Hardware Products, Antivirus Softwares and Computer Accessories in Gujarat. Our products are procured some of the leading brands of the industry such as Kaspersky and Norton among others and are highly appreciated in the market for good connectivity, shockproof exteriors and low transmission interference. Therefore, these products are widely demanded in commercial and residential purposes. Our entire range of products is manufactured at the vendors' end using quality-tested raw material and advanced technology. These products undergo thorough quality tests, conducted under the close vigilance of the skilled quality experts, before dispatching these to the market. It is because of the hard work of our experienced and qualified professionals we are able to stand at par with our counterparts in the business. Furthermore, to ensure safely delivery of our product range, we employ proper packaging methods. We are headed under the able guidance of our manager, "Mr. P. K. Garodia", who possess vast experience in this domain. His sharp business acumen and professional skills are the basic pillars behind our success and growth.
