About Us

We, Bharat Corporation, are a fully family owned and managed business enterprise headed by Mr. Shailesh Desai dealing in welding accessories. We are strategically located in a commercial centre in Mumbai from a modern and well furnished office. We are also in our possession a sufficiently big godown to store our inventories before they are supplied to our customers. We are operating as wholeseller and trader of a number of welding accessories such as sap argon torch, apron chrome leather, ceramic nozzles and cutting nozzles. We started our operations on the 18 December of the year 1965. Though we launched our business on a modest scale, the dynamism and enterprise of our business head and the wholehearted support and cooperation of other family members, we have been able to achieve tremendous success in our endeavours within just a few years and are continuously marching ahead to attain even greater heights. Today, after about 47 years of our existence, we have reached a number of turnover of about Rs. 10 crore which is a highly satisfactorily performance by any standard. The fact that our enterprise started from a scratch and faced lot of difficulties in arranging the necessary infrastructure and finances to run its operations put our success in a better perspective. The extremely competitive nature of our business where we have to continuously compete with the enterprises who enjoy a great reputation and are highly professional in their...
