About Us

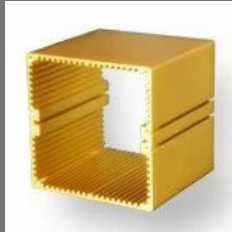

Established in 1990, BHOOMI Modular Systems (P) Ltd. is India's oldest and largest supplier of heatsinks, card frame cabinets and other products used to remove excess heat generated by electronic components and systems. We support many of the world's largest companies, serving the computer, automotive, telecommunications, industrial control, power supply, military, medical and factory automation industries. BHOOMI Modular Systems (P) Ltd. is also a leading designer and manufacturer of aluminum extrusions, card frame cabinets and aluminum fabricated products, with customers in construction, sporting goods, and leisure time industries. BHOOMI Modular Systems (P) Ltd. excels at manufacturing! By controlling every aspect of the manufacturing process from aluminum billet through machining, finishing and assembly, we are able to meet customers' exacting requirements with short lead times at highly competitive prices. The control and flexibility afforded by our vertical integration give us fundamental advantages over our domestic competitors. Through strategic partnerships with several high-quality ...
