About Us

With a motive to offer domestic and international tours, we have started as a proprietorship company named Dream World Holidays and then changes in to a partnership company and now we are working as a private limited company. As for now we are parallel working as three separate companies naming Dream World Holidays Management India Private Limited.

We are backed by a team of disciplined and experienced people. Our dedication for providing facilities for traveling and exploring helps us in carving out a prestigious place in the industry. Various known as well as unknown wonders are waiting to be experienced and we are here to make your experience more creative. We use our expertise to customize the packages for the holidays that you can never forget.
