About Us

Drug Today Group of Publications – a brief introduction This is to submit here that we are a publishing house. Established in 1993 by our Founder Chairman, Mr Lalit Mishra, our group brings out two leading health journals, namely Drug Today (DT) and Drug Today Medical Times (DTMT). While Drug Today (DTMT) is a comprehensive directory on drugs and formulations, DTMT is a monthly newspaper that covers health and medicine from 360 degree angle. Chairman Lalit Mishra is assisted by Director, Marketing, DT, Poonam Mishra, in all his ventures and played a key tole in bringing out many a publication in the field of pharmaceutical industry. DT, our publication on medical formulations, has been rated the best medical journal. It covers all the latest updates on a range of drugs and formations for the benefit of pharma fraternity. No wonder, DT is very popular among Specialist doctors, general practitioners, chemists, pharmacists, nurses, patients and medical student and use it for their reference to find out the medicines available in the market. We take the privilege to announce here that DT is rated as the South Asia's most sought after journal. DTMT, on the other hand, as a leading health journal dedicated to health and medicine, caters to the needs of all the health conscious. It not only serves the interest of the healthcare sector but also plays as a bulwark of medical industry safeguarding its core interests and guiding it in its service delivery. Apart from...
