About Us

Jaiwana Haveli was once the private residence of the Thakur of Jaiwana, one of the jagirdars of Maharanas of Mewar. Located in the historic city of Udaipur, the hotel has an unbeatable location.

The twenty-four room Jaiwana Haveli hotel is located on the eastern bank of Lake Pichola, and possesses unparalleled views across the sparkling waters and island palaces, to the Aravali Mountains beyond.

The hotel is equipped with modern facilities for the modern visitor, with a touch of the Rajput tradition that makes Udaipur one of the most beautiful and historic cities in the world.

The Jaiwana Haveli is professionally managed by Yashvardhan Ranawat and his family, who have many years experience in the hotel profession.

The roof top restaurant with its panoramic views has become a popular venue for visitors. An excellent choice of Indian, Mewari and continental cuisine is available.
