About Us

We - Karan League are one of the leading merchant traders engaged in exporting a diverse range of products through our marketing and distribution networks. Over the years, we have successfully carved a niche for ourselves in the international market with our superior quality products. We provide industrial lab chemicals, laboratory pharmaceutical chemical, FMCG good and consumer durable goods. We have gained the faith and trust of our clients both at the domestic as well as the international markets. It has been made possible only because of our commitment towards quality and time bound shipment schedules with an extremely professional approach. Over the years, intensive development work enables us to significantly improve and reinforce our position in the field of export by entering into strategic alliance with manufacturers in diversified fields. We have a team of skilled professionals who are well organised in discharging of their duties and responsibilities and that has led us to become the one stop shop for best products & services from India. We take pride in sustaining and growing the prestigious list of customers and associations that we have achieved over the years. For furnishing effective services to our clients, we have our own dealership offices at various locations worldwide. At present, we are exporting our products to different countries catering to the diversified requirements of general commodities, industrial supplies, engineering components,...
