About Us

In my life of astrological research work I have come across many wise and brilliant persons those who are directly related with the field of traditional sciences. For the sake of my research I have had discussions with them periodically. Amazingly most of them are convinced that astrology surely has some rational basis but they are very much afraid to proclaim their faith in front of the public because of the barrier which science built against astrology. Astrology is a science and not a superstition. Modern science always has a narrow sight towards astrology and that is the main reason for astrology that it cannot interpret himself as a science rather than an occult subject. The ancient sages who have propounded the rules and calculations of astrology have divine sight by which they saw many phenomena which the modern scientists could hardly see with their extraordinary equipments. Astrology is the planetary influence on human life. Some so called hypocrite persons those who want to prove themselves as an astrologer want to make money by the wrong usage of the subject and those who combined astrology with many kinds of Gods and yantra-mantra has been able to mark a negative influence on the mind of the ordinary people slightly. Can a science as astrology be ever untrue? As like Ayurveda, an ancient science of natural herbs and by there right usage it can cure any type of diseases completely. Once a time modern medical science was thinking that it hasn't any rational...
