About Us

Kolkata is a classy and posh, Victorian designed city. It continues to surprise and enthrall visitors from all over the world, not expecting this city to be the New York of India. Its grand scale approach stuns all, and continues to add more pleasant shock value each year.

Kolkata is infused with creativity and inspiration, producing and generating many filmmakers, artists, poets and even Nobel Prize winners due to its motivational surroundings. People truly feel in touch with their spirit, affected by the scenery of the crumbling, historical colleges integrated with the design of the buildings from the British Raj era. Kolkata formerly known as Calcutta is the capital of the Indian state of West Bengal.

Hooghly, the western most mouth of the River Ganges, some 130 km/80 mi north of the Bay of Bengal; population (2001) 4,580,500; metropolitan area (2001) 13,216,500.

Kolkata is also the commercial capital of Eastern India; The city is classified as the eighth largest urban agglomeration in the world. Kolkata has a tropical wet-and-dry climate. Kolkata is near the sea; the city has standardized temperature throughout the year. The temperature ranges from 12-27°C in the winter and 24-38°C in the summer. Kolkata is the main business, commercial and financial hub of eastern India and the north eastern states. It is home to the Calcutta Stock Exchange — India's second-largest bourse.

Kolkata is ranked third among Indian cities,...
