We are one of the leading manufacturer and supplier of a wide range of locking rings, drums and barrels accessories. In addition, we also offer press tools for sheet metal fabrication.

About Us

Kumaar Industries, a well reputed manufacturer and supplier set up itself as a small scale industry. Initially, company was fabricating and supplying Press Tools, which are applied in sheet metal. At the present moment, it has become highly famous among customers for offering quality and customers oriented accessories including Locking Rings, Drum Lugs, Sheet Metal Pressed Components, Steel Hose Clamps, Steel Locking Rings, Steel Spring Clamps, Drum Closing Rings, and Stainless Steel Clamps. These accessories are applied for manufacturing for drums and barrels. The world-class Steel Locking Rings and Steel Drum Lugs are made using excellent raw materials, which are obtained from leading raw materials vendors for maintaining reliability and durability of Steel Clamps.

Chennai based firm, Kumaar Industries was started by Mrs.S.Jayasudha with help and able guidance of her husband Mrs.S.Jayasudha. In a very short span of time, company has become a leading name through catering various needs and requirements of customers. We are backed by a team of qualified and experienced professionals who possess expertise and successfully meeting internal quality norms to ensure maximum satisfaction to the customers. Our professionals are well versed with latest technology and successfully operating modern machines to manufacture and supply a wide range of products at market leading prices.
