About Us

Diversity of India reflects on every dimensions of Indian context and Indian wedding is not an exception. Heterogeneity of Indian society and culture essence seeps through Indian wedding affair. They say, "Marriages are made in heaven" and undoubtedly it is one of the prime event of life. In India where social and cultural restrictions are so strong, wedding is perhaps the most important part of one's life. It is also a social occasion for an individual and their family. Indian wedding is nothing short of any festival when it reflects the social and Indian heritage in every possible way. Some typical Indian wedding include the Hindu wedding, Punjabi wedding, Indian Muslim wedding and Christian wedding. In India every part has their own type of wedding ceremony and totally diverse customs and traditions. "Hiring a wedding planner is the wedding gift that you give to yourself! One of the most important things that a planner can do for a bride and groom is provide them with peace of mind. L' Amore wedding entails several different aspects, but mainly we do everything in our power to make sure our clients are 100% happy with everything. we bring your dream wedding to reality!
