About Us

We are far more than just providers of high quality paper, packaging and newsprint; we are business partners and collaborators who take personal interest in enhancing your profitability. Laxmi Traders is the brain child of a visionary industrialist and pioneer, Sh B N Pasari. His innovative ideas, infectious enthusiasm and business acumen have been instrumental in our growth and success. Sh B K Pasari has taken this legacy forward and the company is now growing by leaps and bounds, due to his enormous contribution and hard work. From a humble beginning as a trading company in 1960, the organization has grown to gain unmatched expertise in this niche industry, by not just keeping abreast with latest trends, but also indentifying superior solutions to fulfill customer requirements and providing innovative products. Our active involvement and participation with various paper trade organizations including the highly reputed, Federation of Paper Traders of India (FTP) has helped us to associate with veterans in the industry. It is noteworthy that Mr. Pasari, the ex-officio chairman of FTP, has left behind a legacy that we are proud to carry forward. Our dedicated sales force, prompt delivery, easy ordering options and an ongoing quest for innovative products have given us a competitive edge in terms of customer satisfaction and brand loyalty. A company renowned for making superior quality products available at your doorstep, Laxmi Traders, delivers the perfect solutions based...
