About Us

In India, Every Good news is celebrated with full Taam Jhaam (gala party). It takes an entire army to curate the inevitable events from weddings to baby showers and a part of that crew is our veteran designer and founder – Laxmi Singla. She patronized the Womanpreneur spirit back in the 90s when not many knew what being a Woman in business meant. Started her career as a radio jockey, became a mom and decided to devote herself to her married life. It was in early 1990s, due to financial imbalance in her family, she decided to support her family. She had a knack for art and craft, so started taking 'at-home' classes and small orders for painting, toy making, cooking and other hand-crafts. With support from her family, she never looked back and inspired us all by being our Mompreneur. From managing household, to running a small business unit from her home in 1992, from taking the risk of growing to handling financials of the business from 2010-18, she has done it all. She is now running a mainstream business unit with her family in North Delhi, with clients from across India and abroad. With her spirits as high and passion for her craft every Growing Year, she is planning to expand to South Delhi and other parts of India.
