

Mandala Wine Brands

"Mandala" is a Sanskrit word meaning "circle,"

It represents a world that appears in all aspects of life: in an atom, flowers, the rings in tree trunks and the pattern on a snail's shell, the celestial circles of the earth,

About Us

"Mandala" is a Sanskrit word meaning "circle," It represents a world that appears in all aspects of life: in an atom, flowers, the rings in tree trunks and the pattern on a snail's shell, the celestial circles of the earth, sun, and moon, or the circles of friends, family, and community. The brand name inspires us in our quest for perfection, harmony and wholeness in the production of fine wines for you. The colourful motif of the Indian peacock represents life and the myriad hues of wine producing regions of Nashik, Sholapur and Bangalore from where we source the finest wine grapes, to unravel their stories and capture inside our bottles.

For more information, please visit
aboutus.html

Factsheet

Nature of Business

:Manufacturer

CONTACT US

Mandala Wine Brands

Contact Person: Satish B.N.

No. 971, 5th Cross Road, 12th Main, Indira Nagar
Bengaluru - 560008, Karnataka, India

