We are a professionally managed organization engaged in manufacturing and supplying a wide range of Plastic Bags, Lamination, LD, PP, HM and HDPE Bags. These are widely appreciated by our clients for durability and optimum quality.

About Us

Established in the year 2006, we “Maya Poly Pack” are counted as a prominent manufacturer and supplier of a wide range of Plastic Bags, Lamination, LD, PP, HM and HDPE Bags. We manufacture these products using superior quality raw material and design these in compliance with the international standards of quality. Further, keeping in mind the specific requirements of our clients, we offer these products in various customized sizes. Designed in accordance with the set industry standards, these are immensely used in big supermarkets, branded outlets & retail stores for packaging, marketing and logistics purposes. Advanced techniques and manufacturing facilities adopted by us have enabled us to meet the emerging market demands. We are well equipped with fully automated infrastructure based at Bengaluru (Karnataka, India), which facilitates the entire process of production and helps us in meeting the bulk orders in set time frame. We are headed by our mentor “Mr. Sunil”, whose strenuous efforts in promoting the name of the organization has enabled us in becoming the prominent choice of our clients. Under his visionary approach and valuable suggestions, we have established a commendable position in the domestic market.
