About Us

Mohendra Lal Dutt was a farsighted and illustrious personality who had set out his journey as umbrella manufacturing company of his own in his own name "MOHENDRA LAL DUTT" since 1882 which completed in the year 131 years and thus served the mankind at large for over five generations. He was pioneer in establishing the company since 1882 and after his demise in 1909, his wife Srimati Radharani Devi who was not educated enough, looked after the business with strong determination till their worthy their son Bhawani Charan Datta took over the command and steered the legacy successfully and ultimately established the business throughout the length and breadth of the country with high esteem Just after successfully passing Intermediate examination (Science) in 1st division in 1923. At such a young age he had been able to suitably fight the competition of foreign umbrella manufacturers in India and gave the company its due status reliability and strong base for future. After his death Mr. Tushar Kanti Dutt the grandson of Mr. Mohendra Lal Dutt joined the family business and retained the glory and legacy by dint of his self intelligence and strong sense of good administration. Thereafter myself, Vivekananda Dutta, the great grandson of Mohendra Lal Dutt together with my son Mr. Arnab Dutt the great-great grandson of Mr. Mohendra Lal Dutt are trying our best to develop the most unique quality of umbrella by adopting the latest and most modern and sophisticated...
