About Us

Established in the year 1999, we “Monolithic Sales Corporation” are engaged in manufacturing, supplying and trading a wide assortment of Refractories Castables & Bricks. In addition to this, our company also brings forth a broad gamut of Insulation. These products are manufactured using high quality fire clay and ceramic procured from trusted vendors. Our range of products is used in lining of equipment like furnaces, kilns, fireboxes and fireplaces etc. We are known as a quality-centric organization for which we have also been awarded with ISO: 9001:2000 certification and we have projected our production capacity to 5000 MTPM. The organization is well equipped with ultra modern machinery like High Temperature tunnel Kiln, High Capacity Microprocessor Controlled Presses, Modern Mixers, Grinders & Ball Mills. Our state-of-art infrastructure enables us to produce quality products at cost effective prices and that too within the stipulated time period. Understanding the different needs of various clients, we offer these bricks according to the specifications laid by them. We have spacious warehouse which is environment controlled and thus it facilitates us with ample storage capacity to store the products with optimum safety. All of our operations are ably managed and controlled by our mentor, 'Mr. Jagrut Bhai', who always strives hard for growth and success of the company. His efficient business...
