Project rangamaati is a Grassroot initiative to Empower Artisans of Bengal to break free from Poverty by enabling them to achieve financial independence through Sales of their handicrafts and handloom products on FairTrade basis.

About Us

RANGAMAATI a humble attempt to empower rural female craftsmen of Bengal,we specialize in natural, craft-based contemporary pieces, thus providing rural craft persons a platform to use traditional dyeing and fabric printing techniques.

Capturing the essence of Indian roots, crafted with a focus on the traditional,the yarn used to weave Khaadi fabric has been spun by hand, imparting to it the unique uneven character.

Khadi aids in providing employment to rural craftsmen.A contrast to the monotony of machine-made textiles, this piece is surely one of a kind!

Our quality has been responsible for our success. We are striving to come forth with unique designs to match the domestic and international trends. Our quality products with competitive prices make our offerings irresistible. We are rigid to convert the requirement of the buyer into suitable product with the entrusted team, to utilize our resources to the maximum for obtaining the best quality.

Our Excellence

Quick order processing for shortest lead time to deliver on schedule.

Always open to suggestions for improvement and to upgrade product range.

Non compromising attitude to maintain quality standards with competitive pricing.

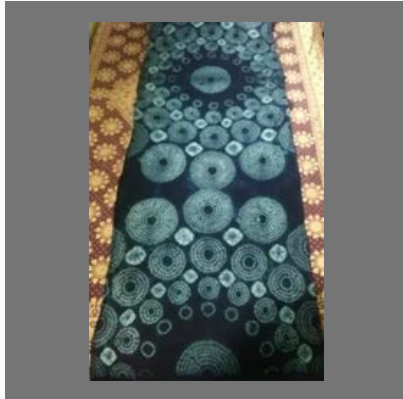

Urge to lead the market.
