About Us

Established in the year 2002, we, "Riddhi Heatron" are a noted manufacturer and supplier of quality Control Panel and Furnace. Our manufactured products are known for their rugged built, resistance to corrosion and cost effectiveness. These find extensive use in mineral extraction, chemical and oil & gas industries. Backed by a state-of-the-art manufacturing facility and a sagacious team of professionals, we have been successfully in catering to the demand of control panels and furnaces in the market. Our manufactured products have bridged the gap between affordability and premium quality. Fabricated from highest grade of raw material, these products boast of an unquestionable supremacy in terms of efficiency and quality. To ascertain the same, we have built a hi-tech quality testing unit, where each product undergoes a series of stringent tests. Here conditions emulate the most challenging work environments, which test the product on their endurance and performance. Our team of quality experts have years of experience, which they put to use while testing these products. Further, we dispatch our orders through various shipment modes using our rich distribution network to ensure their timely delivery to the clients' premises. We are proud to say that all of our unwavering endeavors have been duly recognized and rewarded by the clients in terms of an enduring and productive relationship. The indefatigable...
