We are one of the distinguished and reliable trader of cosmetics and toiletries like face creams, soaps, and other such products. These products are procured from trusted and renowned vendors to ensure superior quality products for our clients.

About Us

Established in the year 1996, Saptarshi Exports trades in a wide variety of cosmetics and personal care products that are known for their export quality. Our mentor, Mr. Rohan S. Bane has always guided us to work towards procuring best quality products for our clients. We have always strived towards offering an extensive range of superior quality products that are made with the use of modern technologies prevalent in the industry. This onus lies on our procuring agents who research the market of a particular product, collect and analyze the data and then convey the information to the respective department concerned.
