About Us

Originating from the principle of giving customers the best in quality and service, Sellex Sales & Services was established as a proprietorship firm by Mr. Dhananjay Pande, an entrepreneur with astute business acumen and foresight. From a small TV showroom in Aurangabad in 1985, Sellex Sales & Services has long since evolved into one of Aurangabad's leading electronic stores located at central location Aurangpura. Along with a team of professional managers, delivering on the promise of servicing customer needs and efficient post-sales services, together with his son Mr. Rohit Pande remains the driving force behind the Sellex Sales & Services.

With aesthetically designed and conveniently located showrooms, Sellex Sales & Services caters to customers of all budgets and preferences. Through customer focused policies and the intuitive understanding of emerging markets, today after more than four decades of successful operations, Sellex Sales & Services has become a trusted name synonymous with quality electronics & consumer durables.
