About Us

Spice Islands has scoured the lush tropics, the desert lands of Africa, the flourishing regions of India, and the unimaginable beauty of the islands, and these travels have been just the beginning. Spice Islands has traveled the world in search for the most revered spices of the world. So that you can give your family the best taste the world has to offer. Spice Islands has intently studied the beginning of the spice trade, sifting through every story, folklore, and rumor. With immense education, Spice Islands has the knowledge and intuition to find the most treasured spices in the world. Not only do we find great spices, we source them during prime harvesting. Our global sourcing ensures that only the highest-quality spices and flavorings bear the Spice Islands name. So you can always trust that your Spice Islands product will give you an award-winning dish. As a trading company, Spice Islands has been stocking shelves with the best spices in the world. Since 1941, we have been making sure you get the freshest spices available. With over one hundred products, Spice Islands is offering the flavor of the world to your kitchen. New products have been developed throughout the years to provide even better quality. Try our unique adjustable grinders, organics, or delicious world flavors that bring the best flavors of the world right into your favorite dishes.
