About Us

Evolved from the expert designed, high-end "VESPA METAL COMPOSITE" series, METAL BUILD represents nothing less than the pinnacle of die-cast composite material action figure design. More than this, the Vespa - which happened to sound like a wasp, too - was fun. Especially so in a post-war Italy still recovering from the Allied bombings and that now turned to the production of modest machines for a domestic market. Book in advance to get Vespa scooters at the best prices. Price ruling at the time of delivery would be applicable. All prices are Ex-showroom, inclusive of Octroi
