About Us

The group was incorporated by Lala Shriram, grandfather of Siddharth Shriram in 1889. Over the next 100 years, the group expanded into textiles, chemicals, sugar, automobiles, engines, nylon tyre cords, automotive components, edible oils, heavy chemicals (fertilizers), engineering foundries, sewing machines, fans and home appliances.

In 1989, the group was split amongst the descendants of Lala Shriram and the Siddharth Shriram group thus came into being.
