We are one of the leading organizations engaged in manufacturing and supplying delicious fruit syrups, juices and mango papad. Apart from this, we offer a wide range of pure and healthy awala products.

About Us

Established in the year 2009, we, “Vakratund Products”, are a renowned firm engaged in manufacturing and supplying Fruit Syrups, Juices and Mango Papad. In addition to this, clients can also avail from us a broad gamut of Awala Products. Processed using high quality ingredients like amla, kokam, mango and more, these products contain high nutritive value and rich taste. Furthermore, the jack fruit offered by us is cultivated using excellent agricultural methods and quality seeds. Advance fruit crushing, water purifying and drying machines have been installed by us that help us in processing premium quality products in bulk quantity. Our processing unit has per month installed capacity of 30 tonnes. The team hired by us is immensely knowledgeable regarding the food standards and eating habits of the clients. It is their expertise, owing to which we are able to cater to the diverse requirements of customers. Besides, following quality standards at every stage of the business process, our firm has acquired a trusted position among clients. Wide client-base has been attained by us, owing to the customer focused approach followed by us. Under the able guidance of director, 'Mr. Mandar Shirsat', our organization has established as one of the noticeable name in the domain. His expertise, in-depth knowledge and sharp business acumen have motivated our team members to work hard for attaining our organizational goals.
