About Us

It is very gratifying to profile Alex Panels before you. To put it on your desk is our way of acknowledging your creativity, taste and an eye for quality. Welcome to the world of Alex Panels, the last word in making the FIRST IMPRESSION! For truly international aluminium composite panels beauty is not merely skin deep. It combines vibrant aesthetics with eternal sturdiness and functionality like never before. This new-age cladding material is designed to change the way you look at the exteriors and interiors of your space. Here's your chance to set your imagination free. Alex Panels comes to you through a combined vision of Punjab Plywood Industries and Janardhan Plyboard Industries Ltd. - owners of blue chip plywood brands Black Cobra and Gee Ply having a very strong nation-wide presence. In our vision of the future, based on our vast experience in allied products, Alex Panels is set to scale great heights in both the nascent Indian as well as overseas markets. It is already off to a flying start. Alex has won great accolades from architects, builders and users alike.
