About Us

Anshuman Stone Crusher is established in the year 2014. We are a Manufacturer of Potash Feldspar Powder, Soda Feldspar, Potash Feldspar, Crushed Stone Aggregate and Stone Dust. These products are highly demanded in the construction industry for their features such as ruggedness, high strength, precisely designed, crack resistance, minimum water clogging and lightweight. These products are processed using sophisticated technology and quality tested raw material in complete compliance with the set international quality standards. With the main purpose to meet the requirements of our patrons, we provide all our products in several packaging options as per their given details. Moreover, we have appointed a team of competent professionals in order to manufacture a flawless range of products. The professionals of our organization maintain close interactive sessions with the patrons to understand their specific needs and requirements.

Under the guidance of our mentor Mr. Kamaljeet Shekhawat (Director), we are moving ahead in this cutting-edge competition.
