About Us

At Antiex Solutions, We are a bunch of passionate people committed to web Design, Web Development, Digital Marketing and mobile applications designing and development. We are innovative, creative and dedicated. We understand what it takes to create a professional, interactive and unique application and we have it all.

Established in 2015, we are located in Ludhiana (Punjab) and since its inception, we have delivered many projects to clients from various parts of the country. We have earned ourselves great reputation for building end to end web and mobile solutions which are not only user friendly but also great value for money.

Our experts have the best industry experience and are well versed with the latest technologies. In current times when there is lot of competition in every sphere, web applications and mobile applications are much needed to make your services available to your potential customers. A simple and effective solution can earn you long term customers. That's where we can be your helping hands and improve the way you reach out to your clients.

We always aim to develop a solution which is attractive, simple to use and can represent your brand image effectively. We bring to you the best that technology has to offer in a cost effective way. Our work speaks for us. Get in touch and we can showcase our portfolio of previous work.
