About Us

AROHA is perhaps one of those few professional social organizations that came into existence primarily to facilitate emerging NGOâ€™s and community based organizations for adopting proficient methodologies in order to address relevant issues for fiscal endurance and upgradation. Aptly named AROHA, the organization is literally attempting to create a crescendo for scaling up the efforts to bring focused transformation in the lives of women who are attempting at their economic revival and sustenance. The organization has a special focus on women and womenâ€™s groups that are keen on self employment opportunities.

The brain child of two sensitive women who are professional management practitioners with expertise in marketing and research - AROHA was created as a means to an end for bringing qualified know-how to the growing fraternity of Self Help Groups proliferating in the NGO world. Both Vishakha Rao-Jathar and Sharmistha Gandhi are Management Specialists with more than fifteen years background in Marketing and Market-based Research.

Abdicating lucrative occupations in the corporate world they tentatively set forth to start off with their dream of providing support to the growing numbers of small scale entrepreneurs that were escalating in the all-pervading SHG scenario.

AROHA was established as a mediating entity for assisting the interested agencies to adopt professional norms in their miniscule commercial set-ups. With the...
