About Us

AVB Teknosolves is a growing company in network automation segment. It's more than just innovation that has won us the confidence of our clients. Team AVB will make your technology investment work, the way you want it and the way it should. We strives for solutions that give our customers true advantage over their competition, whether that's bringing new revenue or reducing network costs; enabling efficient business process; providing security and protection for their valuable assets, or delivering a richer end user experience. Our new network innovation delivers a constant stream of new ideas, providing solutions with extra capacity, security, capabilities and lower costs needed by every Business organization. We provide network infrastructure solution which help business meet their high performance network goals with new level of operational simplicity. We always listen keenly to our customer and guide them through the, often confusing process of choosing the most suitable support solutions and product for their requirement. We ensure that every solution we build is perfect for our customer needs.
