About Us

Agra is a city on the banks of the Yamuna River in the northern state of Uttar Pradesh, India. It finds mention in the epic Mahabharata when it was called Agrabana, or Paradise. Ptolemy, the famous 2nd century geographer, marked it on his map of the world as Agra. It achieved fame as the capital of the Mughal emperors from 1526 to 1658 and remains a major tourist destination because of its many splendid Mughal-Era buildings, most notably the Taj Mahal, Agra Fort and Fatehpur Sikri, all three of which are UNESCO World Heritage Sites. The city has extreme and tropical climate. Summers in Agra are extremely hot and the maximum temperature goes upto 45 °C. The winters are cold with temperature dropping to a minimum 4 °C. The days are often foggy in winter with reduced visibility. The monsoon season which is around the period July to September is humid and the place receives heavy rains during the season. The most comfortable is the winter season and it is the right time to visit Agra.
