About Us

Everywhere I look and most of the time I look, I see photograph..." —Bert Hardy "When words become unclear, I shall focus with photographs. When images become inadequate, I shall be content with silence..."

I am a devotee of photography, who lives in a small town near Kolkata, in West Bengal. My learning and inspiration comes from whatever I see around me that touches my heart. Capturing a moment through my shutters is my passion. I professionally capture a moment that is gone forever, impossible to reproduce; though self taught. So more than choice by taste, in my own words —"Not only that I capture moments but paint the souls through them..."
