About Us

Books have always been a persons best friend in their solitude. But to have the perfect book in hand, a lot of efforts goes into its making. To publish a book that is readable and worth keeping, requires a balanced combination of good writing and some aesthetic presentation of the same. Bhabani Offset Pvt Ltd, among the best known printing houses in Eastern India, is a name to reckon with. There were times when writers and authors have to go elsewhere to get their books printed or published, but today the Bhabani Group have given a respite to such writers, who no longer need to look far in search of impeccably finer quality of publications. Bhabani Printers was already a recognized name in the sphere of publishing. But now, a new chapter has been added with the branching out of a new publishing house in English by the name of Bhabani Books.

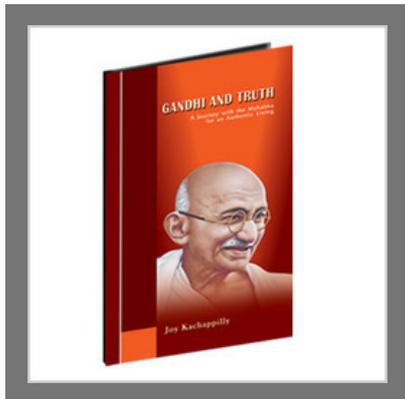

Bhabani Books, a unit of Bhabani Offset Pvt Ltd, Guwahati, is an independent publishing house with offices in Guwahati and in Kolkata. We have been publishing books of different genres for the past few years. Our basic categories include Histories, Biographies, Short story collections, Novels, Translated works of eminent writers, etc. Bhabani Books aims to not just publish newly commissioned books but also revive old classics. It seeks to have a value added reprint of archival books, translate famous Assamese books into English and promote budding new talents as well.
