About Us

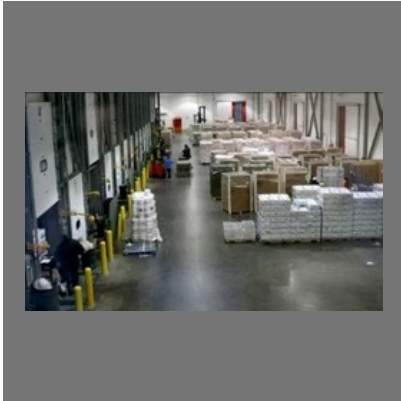

Since 1998, Bhagawati Group has been providing various supply chain logistic services and other products. We are based in Madhya Pradesh and gradually spreading our network roots in other parts of India too. We boast on our strong network in all over Madhya Pradesh and are keen to start new ventures with other companies. We provide distributorship services; our warehousing facilities are available in all regions of Madhya Pradesh for agricultural and other manufactured products. We trade and supply self-graded food grains with the brand name of "UTTAM Brand". Our high tech grading plant is based in Ashoknagar in M.P. which is famous for agriculture of Sharbati wheat. Construction projects are also a part of our expertise, currently we are working on various construction projects based in Bhopal. We are known for our ethical working style and quality service, and for us its all about "QUALITY & COMMITMENT". Our ethics and reputation are the two significant ingredients which have helped in building the path of success and growth for the Bhagawati Group.
