About Bharat Group of Institutions

Gyanpeeth Educational Society, Delhi the parent body of Bharat Group of Institutions was established in Dec, 2007, with the objective of bringing about intellectual awakening and all round development of youth population in the region through technical and professional education.

The Gyanpeeth Educational Society, Delhi has set up three institutions in a short span of three years, namely:

- Bharat Institute of Technology, Sonapat (BITS)
- Bharat Institute of Polytechnic, Sonapat (BIPS)
- Bharat Institute of Nursing, Sonapat (BINS)

The BITS is now a leading educational institutions in the region.

A conscious decision was taken to impart education in different disciplines including nursing to provide our society much needed and competent nurses who in turn can provide quality care in hospitals & community services.

The group of institutions, under Gyanpeeth Educational Society, have achieved an acclaimed academic excellence catering to the educational needs of students coming from different parts of country, rural India in particular.
