About Us

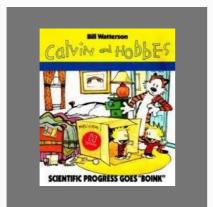

Booker's Café is the brainchild of husband and wife duo Peeyush Trivedi, a Computer Application graduate and his wife Anushree, a holder of a master's in Education and Entomology. They saw a need for a rent-a-book scheme which could bring books into homes across the country, at a low cost and in an easy to use way. Using their combined skills they have created Booker's Café in just a few months and it is already developing a great reputation.
