Cheetah Force is the leading service provider of Security Guard Service, Bouncer Guard Service and much more. These services are known for cost effectiveness, reliability & timely execution.

About Us

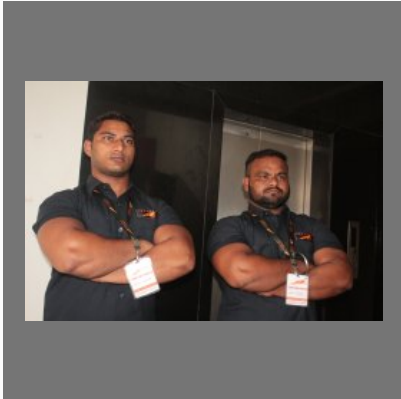

Cheetah Force is privately owned security services provider agency having branches all over Maharashtra and head office in Mumbai. Founded in 2004 by Mr. Sharad A. Chavan(Ex – Civil Defence Instructor), who has the industry's most experienced management staff. Cheetah Force is a fully licensed company which provides various security services like Guarding Service, Electronic Security, Security Guards Training Academy & Housekeeping etc. to Public as well as Private Sectors. Whether you are looking for a complete end to end security or a specific assignment such as uniformed Security, Executive Protection, On-site Training for Guards or any sort of electronic security systems or housekeeping/ facility services –we deliver. We have acquired PSARA license which is mandatory for a private security agency and also registered in various government schemes such as EPF, ESI, PT, ST, etc. we have also acquired the license for security guard training academy from the respective government authorities. We offer a competitive pricing and customised security guard program supported by the most experienced security management staff. Our study growth can be attributed to a business model that continues to provide uncompromising and communicative management support, timely and active solution to the problems, and then overall superior level of service focused on exceeding every client's satisfaction.
