About Us

Codasol is in business to help our customers significantly decrease their indirect material spending using methods that provide tangible return on investment (ROI). Our solution is comprised of processes, data, services, and technologies backed by the most knowledgeable and proficient consultants in the industry. Our clients span several industries and have operations around the globe. Our services around data are nearly endless – but all our projects are aligned with our clients' business sponsors to make sure that it isn't just a parsing and correcting exercise. Knowing the purpose and rules, the outcomes for where data fits – is how Codasol helps empower successful companies with high integrity data
