About Us

What is common amongst a man who had a hectic & stressful day at work, a kid who has been at the play ground for a long time, a woman who has been out buying things for her kitchen and an old aged couple who have just finished their evening walk at a park close by. The common thing is their wish to go "home" and be at peace. A "home" is always more than a mere shelter, it's a dream which everyone wants to realize at one point of time in life, of course the flavor of this dream keeps changing from person to person, but the passion to have the dream come true is just the same.
