About Us

125 years of service and quality began in 1889. A small payment "duccan", A small business - but with big ideals. Our founder Karim Bhai, from Kutch in Gujrat, set up shop at Evening Bazaar in George Town (in the century before the last). In those days, he dealt mostly with lamps and chimneys - the need of those times. Over the years, the shop has grown to accommodate the needs of home makers, hotels, serviced apartments, restaurants, we cater to every type of institution in the catering industry, with a "narrow focus" on Table and Kitchenware. In the years gone by, we were a family that started trading in "lanterns and chimneys"; a "duccan" (under a tree went) subsequently went on to pioneer the imports of Crockery and Enamelware (by the ship loads) from Europe. The business grew as the years progressed and five generation of Currimbhoys still hold "value" sacred and central to the theme of our business. In this generation too, our commitment to quality and price remain in the forefront of our endeavor to choose and sell only those brands that "offer best value for our customer's money". To our customers who walk in to our store or shop with us on the net - Thank You ! Thank you for voting us as "The Best Cook Ware Shop At Chennai In 2011". We assure you that it is our constant endeavor to better our service to You. We take pride in informing you that though our "values are tradition"; our system, procedures and communication to respond to our customer's needs are...
