We are one of the prominent manufacturers and suppliers of Dies and Moulds. Our products are highly acknowledged for their features like durability, accurate dimensions and excellent finish.

About Us

Established in the Year 2005, we, “Darshan Mould Maker”, are engaged in manufacturing and supplying a comprehensive range of Dies and Moulds. The raw material required in manufacturing products are procured from trustworthy vendors in the market. Our products are highly acknowledged for their perfect finish, light weight and precise dimensions. Owing to these attributes, our products are used in various industries. Our plastic moulds find application in refrigerators and coolers.

We have an ultramodern manufacturing unit with the help of which we customize our products on parameters like design, shape, sizes and thickness. Today, we have built a reputation in the domestic market due to our professional approach, quality products and ethical business practices. Further, we keep on modifying the design of our products with the help of our R & D department. We offer various payment modes to the clients and ensure to conduct business on ethical grounds.

It is because of the guidance of our mentor, ‘Mr. Darshan Singh’, that we have progressed by leaps and bounds. His strong business skills, in-depth market knowledge and an extensive experience have earned us a huge clientele. We are looking quiryys from NCR Delhi.
