About Us

Dexler was established in the year 2001, foraying into the training arena and emphasizing Instructor-Led Training with a vision to use technology for knowledge management. Dexler is now focused on delivering learning solutions for organizations and institutions committed to developing their best talent and becoming employers of choice.

Over the years, Dexler has recognized the need to move with the times and enable knowledge sharing worldwide, through the use of innovative learning enablers. Today, Dexler offers its customers a combination of strategic educational services and products, robust delivery platforms, learner-appropriate content in a flexible framework for individual learning, corporate education, and community learning.

Dexler helps learners and organizations discover what is possible through its innovative learning solutions. Dexler's team of talented, creative, and passionate employees is dedicated to helping transform the learning experience and creating a world where everyone has the opportunity to excel. The focus is on breaking down the barriers to learning and creating a more personalized experience that engages, inspires, and enables people to realize their full potential.
