About Us

Fascinated by the eclectic fusion of Western and Indian wear, Dilli Darzi started with an intention of bringing high street wear to girls who are part risk-lovers and part free spirited, The girls who effortlessly exhibit a fierce urban sense of style and are constantly experimenting and redefining their fashion sense.

We evolve at the same pace as our customers, that is, we understand how music, pop culture, socio political movements, new gadgets , gizmos and travel shape the world in which our valuable customers live and therefore, we believe in a complete trend research, which involves understanding key national and international trends before we create our new collection.

DD girls want to wake up pretty, step out chic, dine glamorous. To dress their many unpredictably predictable moods, we design array of dresses, playful tops, wicked jumpers and elegant gowns.

DD's use of hypnotizing colours, intricate detailing and immense focus on the fine tailoring and suave cuts makes the collection unique and exclusive.
