About Us

DJ Impacts got established in 2013 and currently based in Tamil Nadu, India. Under the leadership of Mr. S. Dhanapal (Proprietor), the company has attained great heights and a huge deal of clientele. Inventory Control Management Empowered by our highly sophisticated inventory management system, we are able to keep record of maintenance equipment/supplies and products. Our system enables us to eliminate confusion. It keeps data to ensure that we always have sufficient products and other resources availability to meet bulk requirements in case where we are notified beforehand when the stock is dwindling. Packaging Facilities Our products are securely packed to protect against chemical, physical and microbiological invasions. The products are packaged in nontoxic and sanitary maintained product environment. All our products are securely packaged to endure trials like warehousing, shifting, loading, transportation, etc. Furthermore, we also give customized packaging solutions as per requirement of customers. Delivery Facilities Within a span of one year, we have established cordial business relationships with numerous dealers and distributors that source our products. Our wide network enables us to deliver the orders on time. Owing to our network, we are able to cut cost and provide products at economical prices. Furthermore, we have ties with various logistics and freight service providers that help us reach customers almost everywhere.
