About Us

With our own geographically diversified cultivation bases, a network of organic cereals , pulses, dried fruits, , herbs & spices and other products suppliers, and our continuously improving cultivation methods, we are able to ensure a consistent and stable supply of a variety of organic commodities. These produce are sold domestically and used as raw material at our processing facilities. We offer more than 100 types of organic products.

Farmer's Welfare Special efforts are made to educate farmers about organic cultivation in order to reduce the cost of production and set them free from debts by using their own preparations. We are also helping farmers by providing them technology for pest management , fertility and quality management by organic methods.
