About Us

Our journey began in 2009 to encourage, promote and develop human values among people through its training programs, coaching and mentoring services. Today, our pride in owning our small business has changed our life. Thanks to our participants! How it all began One fine day, my chief mentor and I, we were reflecting on the people who have and who do enrich our lives and we realized how empty life would be without people adding value to our daily experiences. Yes, we had many a challenge come our way. Our mentors played a very vital role in our career growth and personal development. It was just an afterthought How about starting a mentors club? And, we did. By doing so, we saw that we could breathe new life into small thinking crowd! We have been helping people (from as common as office boys to someone from the top management of an organization) develop into something more Successful individuals! That aha moment When we first started, we tread the deep waters slowly. Yes, over the last five years, we had many a stumble. We held onto our grit! It is paying off. Its true When the going gets tough, the tough get going! Today, we realize we have been able to turn our dream combined with passion into a viable business - something we hoped the people we interacted with (we find it difficult to call them customers) would absolutely love. The most remarkable aspect about EPITOME (is what our participants say) is the friendly and enthusiastic spirit of all our facilitators. The...
