About Us

A premier institution in North Bangalore, Florence Public School R.T. Nagar, made its humble beginning 3 decades ago and today has grown into one of the leading institutions in Karnataka. The motto of the institution is to provide quality education from Pre–nursery to the tenth standard. The institution caters to the needs of different sections of the society. The institution firmly believes in a multi-dimensional development of the child’s personality. We strive for excellence in academics, sports as well as in co-curricular activities. Professional competence as well as dedication to the cause of education has helped us achieve all these and much more. The school is a fine example of maintaining a healthy relationship between the management, parents, teachers and students.
