Offering catering services, corporate event catering services etc.

About Us

Food Fab Catering was established to provide superior culinary experiences for corporate events, weddings and celebrations. We offer both the flair and passion in what we do to create suitably impressive catering. Providing a range of catering services in Bangalore, we take pride in offering an affordable and professional catering service, representing good value and consistency in both menu and areas of delivery and service.

Food Fab Catering was founded in April 2008, by Mr. Jai Prakash Dangi an MBA graduate. Mr. Dangi, after quitting a lucrative job in software marketing wanted to introduce an innovative Corporate Catering company that supplies authentic and home-made food from a central kitchen with commendable hospitality and service.
