About Us

GROHE continues to lead the German sanitary sector by stimulating and driving innovation in the industry. The judges at the ‘TOP 100’ innovation awards named the company as a ‘Top Innovator’, impressed by the company’s multi-faceted efforts and its targeted investments in research and development. Andrea Bußmann, Regional Vice President Sales Central Europe, and Dr. Ulrike Heuser-Greipl, press officer of GROHE Group, accepted this noted award at the Deutscher Mittelstands-Summit held in the Colosseum Theater Essen, Germany, on June 27. The awards were presented to Germany’s most innovative mid-sized companies by science journalist and TV personality Ranga Yogeshwar, who once again served as mentor for the award programme.
